

3465 S. La Cienega Blvd.
Los Angeles, CA 90016

Position: Coatings Chemist

Company Profile: Spraylat Corporation is a coating manufacturer. The Los Angeles Division specializes in high performance waterbased coatings for General Industry and the Automotive market.

Description: Coatings Chemist will report to the Lab Manager, and will be responsible for projects focusing on the product development and application development of Company's products in the Industrial Coatings and Automotive markets. Will Manage 1-2 Technicians. Included in the responsibilities will be interaction with external and internal customers. This position requires a minimum of a Science or Engineering Degree with experience in Industrial waterborne and solventborne coating systems. The candidate will be able to rapidly learn the in house product line and chemistry involved, develop a knowledge of the application of the product line, and become skilled in the evaluation and testing of coating products. Will be able to develop starting point formulations to aid in the introduction of new products into the Industrial and Automotive market. In conjunction with the Lab Manager, the Chemist will coordinate and conduct technical service and development projects to support the business goals and growth of the company and rapidly come up to speed on regulatory issues related to the product line.

Requirements: -SKILLS WANTED-

- A good relationship person to build rapport with customers and company employees, as position will interact with all areas of the company. Candidate will have excellent communication skills and be able to deal with individuals at all levels as there is potential for job growth to that of Group Leader with responsibility for the operation of the Lab during periods of travel by the manager. The candidate will be a good leader and have excellent interpersonal and presentation skills including computer related skills.
- A well developed understanding of the technology and manufacturing of variety of different paints, ie: Acrylics, Alkyds, Urethanes, etc. Solvent and Waterbased.
- ISO/QS 9000 experience is a plus.
- Color Matching skills are desirable.
- The ideal candidate will have worked for a paint company or manufacturer of raw materials to the coatings industry, in operations and/or the Technology groups and is very familiar with paint manufacturing operations.

Required Experience 5+ Years.

Required Travel: Minimal

Job Type: Employee-Full Time

Location: US-CA-Los Angeles

Resume

Submission: Tim Deslippe, Laboratory Manager
DeslippeT@Spraylat.com or FAX (310) 836-6094